Case - Timothy N Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.
Operative - 312.

312/general

and Police Officer in question entered into confidential consultation, speaking very low.

Upon leaving the above mentioned Lunchroom, Operative while wandering about Town run across several reporters in conversation, and from what they were saying Operative was led to believe that Mrs. Gibson wanted $15.00 for information, as one of the reporters was overheard to say, "Not from me, the first thing she knows she'll be behind the bars." One of the other reporters then said, "No, don't fool yourself, Mott got her to tell that story to us, but he is holding the real true story so he can get an indictment, and that is why they put her up to shoot at the reporters to keep them away." Another reporter then remarked, "I understand that the Officials are paying her to tell things that way."

At about 10.05 p.m. Operative proceeded to the railroad station and boarded the next train for New York City, and discontinued.
